FOR PLAYERS, BY PLAYERS

MARKET RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS

INTRODUCTION

Global Casinos

The global casino industry generates an impressive $450 billion annually, driven by thriving brick-and-mortar establishments across North America, Europe, and Asia, with a staggering 1.6 billion visitors each year from both physical and online platforms.

Online Casinos

Online casinos are a key segment, projected to contribute $93 billion in 2024, supported by a billion gamblers and growing at 11.7% annually. Affiliates benefit significantly, earning 20%-50% of player lifetime revenue, with referred players generating $200-$400 annually. Optimized content and SEO strategies can yield monthly affiliate earnings of $5,000-$50,000, particularly by targeting mobile users.

(ONLINE) GAMBLING IN NUMBERS

SEO in Online Gambling

Optimized content and SEO strategies can yield monthly affiliate earnings of $5,000-$50,000, particularly by targeting mobile users.

Budget

Marketing budgets require a starting range of $10,000 (+/-) per month. This should cover SEO content creation, link building, and technical audits; paid media campaigns like Google Ads and social media; and influencer marketing collaborations with Twitch streamers or other niche influencers. Collaborating with Twitch streamers range from $500 to over $10,000 per stream, depending on the streamer's reach and engagement levels.

Expected results

Significant results with organic SEO in the iGaming niche typically takes 4 to 12 months, depending on the site's authority, keyword competition, and content quality. For new websites, progress is usually closer to the 6-12-month range, while established sites with strong link profiles can see faster outcomes. Consistent blogging, backlink acquisition, and on-page optimizations are essential to sustaining long-term growth.

The “Beat The Fish” Guide that Started it All

by Josh H | Owner and Editor-in-Chief

The surge of the online poker made the game available to people from all over the globe at any time of day and night. The popularity of the game attracted many inexperienced players to the tables.

Josh's updated notes: The following Beat The Fish strategy guide was actually the first piece I ever did for this site in the summer of 2005. I've fixed it up graphically (seriously, I was using Frontpage 2003 when I released it), but 95% of the text remains the same as it did when I put it out in those halcyon online poker heydays.

It not only remains special to me for sentimentality, but the advice I doled out after a couple years of online poker under my belt is still relevant today.

Beginners can still pick up a ton and I think more advanced players will still glean a trick or two to earn a little extra profit.

A lot of the guide may seem like common sense to today's players, but keep in mind that in 2005, quality No-Limit Hold'em strategy advice was still scarce. Guides designed specifically for beating the wild online tables of the day were virtually nonexistent.

That's what my unique angle was: you might know how to play, but you need to adopt an entirely new set of rules for "the fish". I hope you enjoy it as much as I enjoyed sharing it with hungry players all those years ago.

NAMING

INFORMED, Highbrow, IN CONTROL

Based on all the previous mentioned information, metrics and target audiences, the proposition for naming a “Best casino list” website project would satisfy both the primary and secondary targets in its simplicity, resonance and uniqueness

How to name a project?

An unique name guarantees better Google listing by default. When paired with specified primary, secondary and longtail keywords, it will create a stand-alone brand that will be recognizable by both the Google algorithm and the target audience.

When naming this project, we translated all the information we have gathered into an SEO neutral noun chain, that has high resonance and acoustic visibility, while also having 0 presence on Google search.

With an additional proposal relating to artistic liberty.

CasinoCheckTool

CasinoCheckTool communicates our methodical and cold approach to fact-checking and guarantees results. Tools are useful, necessary and needed, particularly when assisting with your monetary possibilities.

0 google search results guarantee a free naming niche and semantic closeness with our niche means Google will have no problem placing us in our chosen category, giving us a chance to build a brand.

Neutral meaning allows us broadness in casino listings but does not translate well into a future casino venture.

As for the logo, easy to picture, and easy to translate into merch, ideograms and digital copy.

CasinoCheckTool communicates reliability, hard work and professionalism, all of which are values mentioned in our mission statement.

Out of all our propositions, CasinoCheckTool is the only name with a verb, making it more imperative, which would translate well with the secondary target, but not the primary.

CrownPlayAcademy

CrownPlayAcademy is easily translatable in both logo and merch, as well as digital copy and web ideograms

There is a drawback to picking “CrownPlayAcademy”: there are 0 search results for “CrownPlayAcademy” but there is a “CrownPlay_Academy” casino, which influences the niche-brand approach. But, since the CrownPlay_Academy competitors only has 53k Google searches, we will easily beat them with strong marketing, SEO and a good social presence, including streaming.

“Academy” relates to knowledge being passed down to knowledge-seekers, which correlates strongly with both our USPs and mission statement.

Nevertheless, this proposal communicates our USPs and missions incredibly well, also leaving room for future casino upgrades.

This proposal would also translate easily into future endeavours with player aid and assistance, regarding casino frauds and money-back guarantees.

An artistic addition is that the “Crown” noun relates to “Kruno”.

GambleShield

Concise and to the point, easily translatable to merch and a brand, GambleShield communicates our mission directly to the audience with simplicity and multiple interpretations, making it more fluid in the future.

A shield has a neutral meaning and can represent both a shielding action or an object, representing both a defensive item or a symbol of a house or a family. All of this communicates tradition, integrity and robustness - all values we would like to represent to the audience.

A smart choice and necessary protection when gambling, GambleShield can be recognized by a broad audience by several different associations.

180 Google search results with irrelevant competition (not in the niche) make it an ideal candidate for a niche brand.

Easily relatable with both primary and secondary audiences, GambleShield has a sturdy ring and covers a broad range of potential future expansions.

GambleShield has easy acoustic visualization and translates easily into a logo.

Secondary meaning can easily translate into a casino in the future, as well as legal aid to the players.

SenorGamble

57 Google results not connected with the industry means simple and straightforward.

Google will compare us by default with MrGambe which will positively impact our short term and long term marketing and SEO efforts

Tying our name and brand to our primary competition fosters both positive and negative elements.

The positives are:

The values of our competition become our own values. The customer already has positive connotations with a similar name thus fostering positive connotations with our own name.

Positioning as number two reaps more short term benefits than starting from scratch.

The negatives are:

Long term brand awareness is hindered due to our default secondary position, not being able to branch out of our preset competition.

Both positive and negative:

Market shares in the number two position are bigger than anything that can be achieved as a underdog SEO wise.
